Going to Enforce the Law.

The city authorities are enforcing the ordinance against persons leaving their horses and mules unsecured on the public square or streets of the city. The least fine fixed by the Ordinance is five dollars, and the Mayor instructed the police to take charge of all unsecured stock and have a negro to hold them until the arrival of the owner who could then pay 25 cents to the derrick for holding his animal or give bond for his appearance before the Mayor's Court. It is needless to say that the quarter is always paid rather than take chances on paying $5. We warn our friends who are in the habit of leaving their stock unsecured, even for a few moments, to stop it or the police will take charge of their teams. The present mild reminder of 25 cents will be discontinued as soon as the public is notified of the enforcement of the ordinance, when offenders will have to settle at the Mayor's Court. It is a good ordinance and its stringent enforcement is in behalf of the property and lives of persons who may be in the city. Several horses were running away on the square at one time the other day, and a runaway team on a crowded street or square is an exceedingly dangerous thing.

Corner Dots.

There are several cases of sickness in our community, mostly among the little folks. A daughter of Mr. Jno. McDonald is extremely low with typhoid fever, and a little daughter of Mrs. Hammie Reid is also very sick with something like diphtheria. We hope that the little girl will soon be restored to sound and perfect health. There are also some other cases of sickness but of minor importance.

There has been a great deal of bad weather lately, and it is with much difficulty that the farmers are saving their grass and fodder. No doubt a great deal of it will be badly injured by the recent rains.

To-morrow the election will take place. Then the whole State will be alive like a beggar's shirt; there will be a general stirring up of the genus homo from one end of the State to the other. The fires of enthusiasm will be kindled in every breast, and our people will proudly choose the men that shall rule over them, and who shall shape their destinies for the next two years. We hope that our voters will choose men who are competent, and who are not attached to any separate clan or party outside of the Democratic party. Let our people go to the polls and vote as living, free, moral agents, and for whom they practically and independently please, just so they select men who strongly advocate the doctrines of pure Democracy and who are gentlemen of spotless character and high repute.

Mr. J. W. Reid, of Reidville, S. C., who has been spending several days in the Corner visiting friends and relatives, returned home last Saturday, much to the regret of his many friends. Mr. Reid, by his pleasant manner, made many friends while here, and we hope to have him back in our midst in the future.

Miss Hanna Cuddy, of Wideman, S. C., has been visiting the family of Rev. R. C. Ligon for some time past.

Miss May Yates, one of Charleston's most beautiful and attractive young ladies, who is spending the summer in Anderson, spent several days with the family of Rev. R. C. Ligon last week, returning to Anderson last Saturday afternoon. Miss May, by her charming and pleasant manners, made a host of friends, and it was with much regret that they saw her take her departure, but we hope that she may again pay the Corner a long visit.

Miss Annie Bowie, a pretty young lady of Due West, is visiting the family of Mr. J. W. Bowie.

Mr. R. L. Bowie, with Misses Annie, Nettie and Mattie Bowie, who have been traveling through the mountains for several days, returned home last week. They report having had a fine time.

Miss Mabel Smith, of Gastonia, N. C., who taught in this neighborhood last year, is back again visiting friends and relatives. Miss Mabel has many friends in the Corner who are delighted to have her among them once more.

Prof. E. S. Hamilton will leave to-day to resume his duties as principal of the Russellville (Ark.) Graded School. His many friends are sorry to see him leave. We wish him all success during his next term.

There was a lawn party at the residence of Rev. R. C. Ligon last Tuesday night, given in honor of Miss Yates. There were present about forty couples, and the grounds resounded with merry peals of laughter until 1 o'clock, when the party broke up. Every one seemed to have had a nice time, and from all appearances, the little dove Cupid did some good work, for there were several who seemed to have been transported to a land where there was nothing but love and happiness to the two happy and infatuated sweethearts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Yates, of Charleston, who are spending the summer in Anderson, spent last Thursday with the family of Rev. R. C. Ligon.

The many friends of Miss Lois Davis will be glad to learn that she has accepted the school at Generostee for another term, and the patrons and trustees are to be congratulated for having secured her services, for, as a teacher, her equal is seldom if ever found.

Mr. J. M. Cuddy has accepted the Iva school, where it is his intention to begin teaching in the near future. Mr. Cuddy is a graduate of Erskine College, and has been teaching for two years in Abbeville County, where, as a teacher, he has met with unlimited success. We are glad to have such a man as Mr. Cuddy in our community, for under the management of such a man and teacher the school cannot help but prosper and bring forth fruits such as shall always be an honor and blessing upon the community.

Messrs. W. T. A. Sherard and S. B. Sherard went to Anderson last Friday on business.

Miss Annie Liddell and Mr. Earl Allen, of Lowndesville, attended the party last Tuesday at Rev. R. C. Ligon's.

Dr. W. E. Link, of Willington, spent last Wednesday night with relatives.

Ask Reid S—who was the prettiest girl at the party and he can tell you.

Misses Meta and Lena Brownlee, two charming and attractive young ladies of Antreville, visited relatives and friends in the Corner recently.

Mr. R. C. Sherard, of Co. C, 1st S. C. V., spent several days with his parents week before last. "Tod" is looking well, hale and hearty, and it seems as though hard tack and beef were serving him extremely well.

Mr. Jas. Brown, a member of Co. C, 1st S. C. V., is also home on a sick furlough, but we are glad to say that he is much improved, and will soon be able to resume his duties as a soldier.

Rev. R. C. Ligon is away from home this week assisting Rev. J. O. Lindsey, D. D., at Lebanon and Rev. J. L. McLean at Mt. Carmel.

Violent Negro Killed by an Officer at Williamston.

WILLIAMSTON, S. C., Aug. 27.—About 11:30 o'clock this morning our policeman, J. A. Johnson, while attempting to arrest Orange McGreer, colored, was forced to use his pistol with deadly effect.

Several days ago McGreer, who was a bad character, met A. J. Williams, one of our citizens, in the street. Both were driving vehicles, and McGreer took occasion to abuse Mr. Williams in the severest terms because he (Mr. Williams) would not give McGreer all the street. He even jumped from his buggy and, arming himself with rocks, started for Mr. Williams, who drove off with his little children for the safety of their lives. It was not until to-day that McGreer came to town since the difficulty, and when Officer Johnson went to arrest him near the Southern Railway depot, McGreer, who was armed with a hoe, struck Johnson three severe blows, breaking the hoe-handle into splinters. Johnson shot three times after the Negro had struck him. One ball took effect in the left side and produced death in less than three minutes. Mr. Johnson received some severe bruises about the head and arms.

The sheriff of Anderson was telephoned for. Immediately after the killing Mr. Johnson surrendered to Magistrate Acker. A jury of inquest was held this afternoon, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict "that the deceased came to his death from a pistol shot wound at the hands of J. A. Johnson, an officer of the law, in the discharge of his duty and that the killing was entirely justifiable and in self defence."

Mr. Johnson went to Abbeville this afternoon accompanied by his attorney, Hon. G. E. Prince, and Judge Klugh granted him bail in the sum of $1,000.

Citizens here were much excited to-night by the appearance in town of many negroes and there were rumors of a purpose to burn the town. McGreer has a wide connection and his relatives are said to be much incensed by his death.

Two hundred white men marched over here from Pelzer at 8 o'clock to give help if it was needed. There was no trouble.

Quite a crowd, consisting of Messrs. Frank Nicely, Ramey Hughes, Reed Kay, B. F. Pennington, J. D. McElroy, Clarence Prevost and Conductor Marshall, bivouacked on Seneca River a few days ago, enjoying themselves highly with a fair measure of success in sealing for the funny tribe.

Miss Myrtle McWhorter left a few days ago on a visit to friends at Hendersonville, N. C.

Miss Hattie McWhorter closed her school at this place last Friday.
